To Lawyers, Merchants, Mechanics, Farm ers, and Public Officers, &c. MERICAN GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY, WASHINGTON.

ON retiring from his official station as Assistant Postmaster General, JOHN S. SKINNER devotes himself to the transaction of GENERAL AGENCY BUSINESS, particularly in connection with the vacy subjects, particularly in connection with the virious departments of the national government—bus ness in which he is henceforth associated wit HENRY O'REILLY, of the State of New York. Persons in any part of the United States, whhave business to transact with either department of the State government at Washington, or with an of the State governments.

to be made in the public records any where in the Union, can have their requests promptly attended to, by addressing the undersigned.

Extensive acquaintance throughout the Union, consequent on the long-continued connection of both the undersigned with the newspaper press, with the post office and other public organizations, will greatly facilitate the prosecution of inquiries and transaction of business through their agency.

Lawyers, public officers, contractors, and others having business arising under contracts, or under the pension, post office, or patent laws—merchants desiring remission of duties, &c.—mechanics or inventors requiring patents—and farmers having business with the General Land Office, may find this agency conducive to their interest in the way of promptness and economy. Claims under treaties with the Indian nations or foreign governments also attended to.

Special attention will be paid to those who wish to buy or sell lands in Virginia and other southern States; and inquirers, from the North or South, are respectfully referred to our circular concerning 'agricultural improvement in the southern States,' lately published in the Globe, Intelligencer, and other journals.

Letter must be post-free, to insure attention; and
